After you arrive in Angers

Settling in at the university halls of residence

If you are not staying at a residence hall, go to the next step. Residences are open 24/7.

- ☐ Go to the reception desk of the residence and ask for your keys to settle into your room
- ☐ Fill in your occupancy form
- ☐ Pay for the first month's rent and deposit (ISEP students only have to pay for the deposit)
- ☐ Pay for the bedding pack (€27.26 for 1 disposable quilt, 1 disposable pillow, 2 sheets, 1 pillowcase). If you do not want to buy it, please inform the residence upon arrival
- ☐ Carry out an inventory check

Registering with the International Office

- ☐ Go to the Incoming Student Office on 2 rue Lakanal for registration
- ☐ Get your Arrival Certificate signed – if applicable
- ☐ Submit your Learning Agreement – if you haven't sent it yet
- ☐ Get your Welcome Pack
- ☐ If you haven't paid online for your residence's reservation fees (€50), you can pay in cash at our office
- ☐ If you haven't paid online for your housing insurance fees (€27), you can pay at the SMEBA agency (46 Bd du Roi René, Angers)

Registering with your department

- ☐ European students: provide a copy of your European Health Insurance Card and a copy of your I.D. card or passport
- ☐ Non-European students: provide a copy of your passport
- ☐ Get your student card
- ☐ Get your enrolment certificate

AFTER ENROLLING YOU CAN :

- Log in to your intranet account (ENT)
- Eat at the university restaurant (RU)
- Play sports (SUAPS)
- Borrow books from the university library (BU)

If you arrive on a Sunday

Sundays are legal rest days and only a few shops are open.

- ☐ Make sure you bring some food with you
- ☐ Check public transport timetables
