Another way of discovering the University of Angers
More than 800 researchers in 25 units, including 13 units working with research organizations such as CNRS, INSERM, INRA
- 500 doctoral students (40% are foreigners)
- Major areas of research: plant sciences, materials, health, mathematics and digital sciences, human and social sciences
- The will to share technologies and know-how (65 patents, 6 start-up companies as a direct consequence of research done in our laboratories...)
- Conferences and scientific events open to all and an open access repository
We have a lot to offer

- Tutoring programs for our 23,000 students
- One "Infocampus" desk for housing, transport, student grants...
- "Human-size" university, working with 50 non-profit organizations
- Wireless network access on the campuses
- 55 sports and arts activities
- Art galleries in the two university libraries
- Specific support for foreign students (12% of our students)
Highest success rate in France for 3-year bachelor’s degrees

- A range of 400 diplomas (initial or continuing education) in every key sector
- Close relationships with businesses and companies (50 work-based learning programs)
- Innovative teaching methods
- Summer schools for a different way to learn
- The possibility of studying abroad (through Erasmus+ program or Isep, or with our 170 international partners)
- Very high employability rate (90%)
Green, environmentally-friendly and responsible campuses

- 5 green campuses: 1 in Cholet, 1 in Saumur and 3 in Angers (2nd in the best-town-to-study-in ranking by L'Etudiant, a magazine for students in France)
- Libraries with extended opening hours (7/7 for Saint-Serge library)
- The will to reduce energy consumption and greenhouse gases
- Constant interaction with companies, non-profit organizations, local authorities, cultural facilities...
- A strong support to our students in the fields of entrepreneurship, culture, citizenship matters
Our values at the University of Angers

- Innovation
- Citizenship
- Tutoring and support
- Outgoing
- Strong ties to the region
- Sharing