Presentation of the Double Master \(link\)

The University of Angers conjointly with the University of Leipzig offer a Double Master in European Financial Markets and Institutions. The students enrolled in this programme will prepare the master degrees of the two partner universities.

The programme prepares students for a career in banking and finance, public administrations, supervisory and regulatory agencies, as well as in European institutions such as the European Commission, the European Central Bank, or the European Stability Mechanism. The classes are taught by renowned academics and professionals from both countries. Students will be trained in the autonomous use of economic analysis and obtain an in-depth knowledge of modern financial markets, particularly in the context of the European integration process.

The Double Master in European Financial Markets and Institutions is a two-year programme within the Bologna system (M1 and M2).

On the M1 level, students attend the Master in European Financial Markets and Institutions at the University of Leipzig. All classes are taught in English. Optional fields are offered in German. The common core consists of the following modules: Financial Market Regulation (10 ECTS) and Development of Financial Markets and Institutions (10 ECTS) and International Economic Policy (10 ECTS). Among the optional courses (selection): Sustainable Finance (5 ECTS), Corporate Finance (10 ECTS), Theorien der Finanzintermediation (10 ECTS), Banking and Financial Law (5 ECTS), Time Series Analysis (10 ECTS), Advanced Macroeconomics (10 ECTS), Wertpapiermanagement (10 ECTS).

On the M2 level, students follow the Master in Law & Finance at the University of Angers. All classes are taught in English. Optional courses are offered in French. In addition, each student must write a Master's thesis (14 ECTS). The common core consists of the following modules: Corporate Finance (12 ECTS), Financial Regulation (16 ECTS), Law and Economics (14 ECTS). Optional courses: International Financial Business Game (2 ECTS), Conjoncture et marchés financiers (2 ECTS), Economics of Financial Risks (2 ECTS) and Capital investissement (2 ECTS).

At the end of the two years, all students who have obtained 120 ECTS will graduate with two Master degrees: Master de Finance, parcours Law & Finance (Université d'Angers) and M. Sc. In European Financial Markets and Institutions (Universität Leipzig).

ATTENTION:

This application only concerns the Double Master Angers-Leipzig.

For admission to Master 1 Finance - Law and Finance major, you must apply via monmaster.gouv.fr (excluding Campus France countries).
