Presentation of the Triple Master \(link\)

The Master in International Finance is offered by the University of Angers, within the framework of a triple diploma agreement with the universities of Macerata (Italy) and Torun (Poland).

Graduates obtain master degrees from all three institutions. The programme aims to educate future professionals in corporate finance and market finance working in an intercultural context. Classes are dispensed by high-level scholars and professionals. Students are taught to use the tools of economic analysis in independent personal study.

The Triple Master in International Finance is a two-year programme within the Bologna system (M1 and M2). The four semesters are organised as follows:

- In the first semester, students attend classes in their respective home institutions, following the programmes of the Master of Economics (Torun); the Master in Finance (Angers); and the Master in Markets and Financial Institutions (Macerata). These classes are held both in English and in the local language. In Angers, the relevant modules are: Communication (4 ECTS), Finance de marché (8 ECTS), Droit (6 ECTS), Gestion (6 ECTS), and Law & Finance (6 ECTS).

- In the second semester, the students from France and Poland move to Italy to follow the curriculum of the Master in Markets and Financial Institutions at the University of Macerata. All classes are dispensed in English. The programme features classes Investment Analysis and Financial Risk Management (6 ECTS), Firms and trends in global markets (9 ECTS), Mathematical Methods for Economics and Finance (6 ECTS), International Marketing (9 ECTS), and European Union Institutions and Policies (9 ECTS).

- In the third semester, all students move to France to attend the classes of the Master in Law and Finance at the University of Angers. All classes are given in English and concern the following fields: Corporate Finance (8 ECTS), Financial Regulation (10 ECTS), Law & Economics (10 ECTS), and Optionnal Classes (2 ECTS).

- In the fourth semester, all students move to Poland and pursue with the programme of the Master programme in Economics at the Nicolaus Copernicus University of Torun. All classes are dispensed in English: Academic Writing and Research Seminars (8 ECTS), Financial Analysis and Managerial Accounting (6 ECTS), Portfolio Theory (6 ECTS). Each student will also have to write a Master Thesis (10 ECTS).

At the end of the two years, all student who have obtained 120 ECTS graduate with three Master degrees.

ATTENTION:

This application only concerns the Triple Master International Finance.

For admission to Master 1 Finance - Law and Finance major, you must apply via monmaster.gouv.fr (excluding Campus France countries).
